MARSHAL soon led setting the pace inside on or just off the rail and in the clear, extended the advantage in upper stretch when roused, held safe. EL CAPO settled off the pace and off the rail, moved out at the three-eighths going three then five wide on the turn, lugged in a bit in upper stretch, was no match for the winner but second best. PIPERS REIGN altered inside foes early settling mid-division, saved ground on the turn, ran on. LAWYER MASON broke outwardly bumping a rival at the start, trailed near the inside and was encouraged along, saved ground on the turn, came out in mid-stretch six wide, was never near enough to threaten. PRETTY CAPABLE was bumped into a rival at the start, settled off the pace outside, went three to four wide on the turn, came out further for the drive, failed to menace. ZIO CAVALLO was coaxed forward briefly leading then pursuing the winner, was asked outside the quarter pole but weakened. SLAYSTER was bumped at the start, stalked two to three wide outside a foe mid-pack, faded.
