GOT A COMPLEX was fleet footed out of the gate getting the early advantage, rolled along in hand being well rated slackening the tempo having little pressure applied by rivals through the turn, moved to the three path for the stretch drive and when asked for run had more fending off runners for the frontrunning score. LITTLE ALEXA was unhurried at the rear with a half mile to run, shifted out reaching for more ground circling horses four wide at the quarter pole, posed the main threat widest in the six path turning for home but just could not get by the determined pacesetter in deep stretch. SKYDIGGER bobbled on the start, recouped to prompt the pace outside down the backstretch, continued to shadow the leader but not making any headway around the turn, shifted to the four path still in the thick of things straightening out for the drive, could not keep up to the front duo in the final furlong and just lasted at the finish line between foes for the third place share. COMPLEX SECRET had rivals on either side while keeping a close eye on the front duo, hustled two wide between horses but could not make any progression in the turn running, dueled inside foes for the show money in the last sixteenth of a mile but was nosed out at the wire settling instead on the fringes instead. RUTHLESS ACTION bobbled at the break, settled three deep in mid-division early on, kept pace outside a couple of rivals travelling three wide throughout the oval, angled to the four path stalling in mid-stretch, finally switched leads late getting another gear and closed in sharply in deep stretch but lost the nod outside of a couple of rivals losing the three way finish for third. MOMANDA had the rail sitting in the middle of the pack down the back straight, took the short way around the bend but was hard ridden losing position at the quarter pole, scraped paint entering the lane but wilted inside of runners midway down the stretch
