WASTELAND stalked from between runners early, came into upper stretch three wide with aim on the leader, gained steadily to take the lead past the furlong marker and edged clear late. JACK SPARROW soon led, set the pace from off the rail in the clear, was asked in upper stretch, overtaken in mid- to late-stretch, proved no match for the winner but just saved second. ALPHA BOND settled in behind the second group inside, moved out leaving the turn fanning four to five wide, finished well and was gaining but just missed the place. MY JAXSON STORM tracked from inside, failed to rally. NORTHERN KING was urged from the start but lacking early speed, raced last but one on the turn running along the inside into upper stretch, went evenly. FRIDAY'S GRACE stalked from outside about three wide, dropped back and faded. ATTACKOFFRAC dropped well back and had no response.
